TO : ALL MEMBER TRANSPORT COMPANIES

This is to inform you that there is already a big success achieved in GST by us. Parcel booking companies had a big problem that how to book the goods of Unregistered Dealers. In our various meetings Mr. Mahendra Arya had advised us that if Consignee and consignor both are URD, then avoid such booking. Because as per the provisions of GST, if you book such a material, you need to pay the GST in reverse and to do that you need to get registered. He had also mentioned the same stand in his FAQ, which was widely circulated in India and to ministry as well.

We had also told the Government at various occasions that by this they are not affecting transport companies as much as they were affecting small traders who were URD. We are happy to inform you that Finance Minister has taken a note of our stand. In the recommendation of their 22nd council meeting yesterday, they have declared the following-

“It has come to light that Goods Transport Agencies (GTAs) are not willing to provide services to unregistered persons. In order to remove the hardship being faced by small unregistered businesses on this account, the service provided by a GTA to an unregistered person shall be exempted from GST.”

This is not just a good news for our parcel booking companies, but also a victory for us, that the stand taken by BGTA has moved this change by the Government.

Now you may book and carry goods of your Unregistered Customers also.
